

If I have a free box from a cable compnay, I would expect to use that company BECAUSE it's my money that I'm spending. When it comes to FEDERAL money that is paying for the service, the consumer should have the choice of ANY VRS provider. That's interoperability. It's the public's dime, not mine. I support interoperability.